CREDENTIALS

Seating at Market Square Arena's press tables is restricted to accredited working media representatives. Non working media will be seated in reserved seat areas when seats are available. Single game credentials must be requested no later than noon the day before the game (Friday noon for Sunday games). Request may be made in writing to David Paitson, Public Relations, Indiana Pacers, Two West Washington Street, Suite 510, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204 or by calling the Pacer Public Relations office at 317-632-3865. Credentials are good for admittance to the Arena, press room and home and visiting locker rooms. Those regularly assigned to the Pacers will be seated at courtside. Those requesting single game credentials will be seated on a first come first serve basis. Prearranged credentials may be picked up before the game at the press gate. MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING PACERS' SEASON PASSES SHOULD NOTIFY THE PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICE IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING.

PRESS GATE — The press gate is located on the third level, northwest entrance of MSA (300 East Market Street). Only media members who hold 1985-86 Indiana Pacers or NBA press credentials will be admitted through this entrance.

MEDIA ROOM

Located on the Northeast corner of MSA's floor level (3rd floor). The room opens 1-1/2 hours before each game and again at halftime and following the game. We must limit press room usage to members of the media only when valid Pacers press passes are presented. It is impossible to accommodate family members, friends, guests or others. The professional intent of the room is to provide a meeting and working place for the media and game personnel. Any abuse of the press room and/or press privileges will cause forfeiture of your press pass.

SERVICES

Complete statistics along with pre-game press notes, line-ups, information regarding injuries, and other pertinent facts will be furnished by the Pacers Public Relations Department. Play-by-play and halftime box scores will be delivered directly to the press table and complete final boxes, fourth quarter play-by-plays and coaches' quotes will be available immediately following the game in the media room. TELECOPIER — The Indiana Pacers will provide one telecopier for use in the media room.

PRESS ROW

Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere at press row. Smoking is prohibited on press row.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only those photographers on assignment will be allowed space on the floor and their photo credentials must be worn prominently at all times. Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, press room and the designated photographer areas on the MSA floor. Only television photographers doing post game interviews will have access to lockerroom areas. Photographers are allowed only within the designated photographers areas at each end of the court. Spaces are allotted on a first come first serve basis. Special instructions for photographers can be found on the photo pass.

LOCKERROOMS

Both the Pacers and visitor's lockerroom will be open up to 45 minutes before game time and 10 minutes after the game.

LIVE INTERVIEWS

Requests for live interviews from Market Square Arena with Pacer players or coaches or opponents players and coaches must be made by 5:00 p.m. the day before the game.

RADIO AND TELEVISION

Electronic media representing the visiting team will be assigned to the northwest end of the press table, near the visiting bench. If notified in advance, the Pacers Public Relations Department will assist in arranging pregame and post-game interviews.

COURTESY: YOUR cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere in the media room, at courtside and in lockerroom areas. During post game interviews those newspapers with morning deadlines and TV stations doing live spots should be given preference in obtaining players and coaches.

THE MANAGEMENT

MELVIN SIMON
Owner, Indiana Pacers

Born in the Bronx, Melvin Simon first became interested in shopping centers while attending the City College of New York, where he graduated with a degree in accounting. He proceeded to earn a master's degree in business and real estate before he entered the Army and was assigned to its financial center at Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis, Indiana

After being discharged from the Army, Simon went to work as a leasing agent for an Indianapolis real estate company involved with some of the first shopping center developments in central Indiana. In June, 1960, he formed his own company, Melvin Simon & Associates, Inc., which as Chairman of the Board he has guided to the position as one of the country's most successful and respected shopping center development firms.

Melvin Simon serves on several shopping center industry committees, including the Board of Trustees of the International Council of Shopping Centers and the Editorial Advisory Board of Shopping Center World Magazine.

His charitable affiliations include serving on the Board of Directors of United Cerebral Palsy and as a former Vice President of the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

HERBERT SIMON
Owner, Indiana Pacers

A native of the Bronx, New York and a graduate of City College of New York, Herbert Simon came to Indianapolis in the fall of 1959. After working for six months for the Albert Frankel Co., an Indianapolis-based real estate firm, Herb joined his brother Melvin in founding Melvin Simon & Associates, Inc.

Since its modest beginning in 1960, Melvin Simon & Associates has grown to become the nation's second largest owner/manager of shopping centers, with over 42 million square feet of retail space in some 120 malls across half of the country.

In a reorganization effort in 1973, Herb was named President, a position he continues to occupy, devoting full-time to developing enclosed regional malls, renovating existing malls and community plazas and playing a key role in revitalization of a number of downtown areas. The firm is also actively involved in several mixed-use developments and has many new projects on the drawing board.

As President of a company with the high community profile maintained by Melvin Simon & Associates, Herb finds himself personally involved in a number of community activites. He serves on the Board of Directors of Butler University and the "500" Festival Associates and is a strong patron of the arts, lending support to many of the city's fine cultural institutions.

ROBERT J. SALYERS
President

Bob Salyers begins his third season as President of the Indiana Pacers. Prior to assuming his role as club President, Salyers, 39, was the Pacers General Manager for two seasons.

Under the leadership of Salyers, the Pacers have become one of the most respected organizations in professional sports. Since the change of ownership following the 1982-83 season, Indiana has made tremendous strides in all areas including front office and basketball operations, ticket sales, radio and television broadcasts, game entertainment and community involvement.

In three years under Simon ownership with Salyers as President, the Pacers have increased season ticket sales from 1,255 in 1982-83 to over 4,800 going into the 1985-86 season. The Pacers have introduced the unique Slamma Jamma mini season package and have sold over 3,500 for the upcoming season. The Pacers have taken control of their own radio and television broadcasts which have resulted in increased revenue and improved broadcasts.

The basketball operations have been completely rebuilt in the past two seasons with the hiring of George Irvine as head coach, Donnie Walsh and Mel Daniels as assistants and Tom Newell as Player Personnel Director. Wayne Embry, who helped build the Milwaukee Bucks into a consistent NBA power, was hired as Vice President and Basketball Consultant.

Salyers, who was first attracted to the Pacers organization through his law practice (Salyers, Eiteljorg and Craft), now devotes most of his time to his Pacer duties which also include overseeing the operations of Market Square Arena and Network Indiana, a 50 plus station radio network.

Prior to his law studies, the Purdue University graduate earned a bachelor's degree in animal science in 1968. He is also a U.S. Army veteran, having spent 13 months in Vietnam.

Bob, and his wife of 16 years, the former Beverly Jernas, have two children, Kyle (11) and Krisha (9).

WAYNE EMBRY
Vice President, Basketball Consultant

"We feel we've added a superstar to our organization."

That was the comment made by Pacers' President, Bob Salyers at a press conference following the hiring of Wayne Embry as the Pacers new Vice President and Consultant.

The man who helped mold the Milwaukee Bucks into one of the most consistently successful teams is one of the most respected basketball minds in the NBA.

"I think that hiring Wayne Embry is one of the smartest, if not the smartest, move that the Indiana Pacers have ever made," said Boston Celtics President Red Auerbach. "Wayne is a very serious, hard-working guy who's very knowledgeable in the game of basketball. He has the experience, he's a good judge of material and he's well respected by everybody who has been around for any length of time."

The first black ever named to a top NBA front office position, Embry was appointed Vice-President and General Manager for the Bucks in 1972. During his six years, he was best known for his delicate handling of the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar trade to the Los Angeles Lakers - one of the biggest trades in NBA history.

The trade brought Elmore Smith, Dave Meyers, Brian Winters and Junior Bridgeman to the Bucks. These players formed the core of the Bucks teams that won ten division titles during the 1970's and early 1980's. Prior to joining the Bucks as General Manager, Embry convinced Hall-of-Famer Oscar Robertson to finish his career in Milwaukee. The discussions resulted in the trade of Robertson from Cincinnati to Milwaukee, a move which helped push the Bucks over the top into their 1971 World Championship.

Extremely successful in the business world, Embry is President of the Michael Alan Lewis Co., which converts and fabricates fiberboard paper, insulation and poly products for the automotive industry. He is also a marketing consultant for the G. Heileman Brewing Co. in LaCrosse, WI.

A graduate of Miami University (Ohio), Embry was an All-MAC basketball selection in 1957-58. A five-time NBA All-Star, he played professionally with the Cincinnati Royals (1962-66), Boston Celtics (1966-68) and Milwaukee Bucks (1968-69).

Wayne and his wife Terri have three children, Debbi (25), Jill (24) and Wayne Jr. (22). They reside in Fox Point, WI.

RAY COMPTON
Vice President of Operations

Ray Compton enters his third season with the Indiana Pacers as the club's Vice President of Operations.

Compton, 35, joined the Pacers in November, 1982 as Assistant General Manager. He coordinates the ticket marketing, public relations and promotions areas for the Pacers.

Compton, a native of Homer, Ill., graduated from the University of Illinois in 1972 with a bachelor's degree in journalism. He worked for newspapers in Champaign, Ill., Quincy, Ill., and Little Rock, Ark., before joining the Indianapolis News in 1976. He worked for the News for six years, covering Big Ten football and basketball.

Compton is married to Sherry Koerner Compton, who also works with the Pacers.

DAVE ALCORTA
Vice President, Broadcast and Media Sales

After two seasons as the Indiana Pacers Broadcast Sales Manager, Dave Alcorta has been promoted to Vice President, Broadcast and Media Sales.

His responsibilites include producing the radio & television broadcasts, advertising sales and managing the growing Pacers radio network.

Alcorta has 25 years of broadcasting experience. Prior to joining the Pacers he spent 16 years at two radio stations in San Diego as Sales Manager. He also produced and directed the radio broadcasts for the San Diego Chargers and for San Diego State University basketball.

A native of Boston, Dave and his wife Linda have two children, Nick and Ellen Kathleen.

BOB METELKO
Chief Financial Officer

A recent addition to the Pacer front office lineup is Bob Metelko. As Chief Financial Officer, Metelko oversees all financial matters for the club. In addition to his duties as Chief Financial Officer, Metelko is the Pacers Office Manager.

Prior to joining the Pacer staff, Metelko served as Vice President and Controller at Merchants National Bank in Indianapolis. He is a Certified Public Accountant.

A native of Lincoln, Illinois, Metelko is active in the community and is a member of the Dance Kaleidoscope Board of Directors and "500" Festival Associates. The Notre Dame graduate coaches boys baseball, girls softball, and is an avid White Sox fan. Bob has three children: Kirstin (11), Aaron (9), Megan (7).

DOUG MCKEE
Controller

Doug McKee, the veteran of the Indiana Pacers front office, begins his tenth year as the Pacers' Controller. McKee is in charge of the day-to-day financial matters for the club.

Before joining the Pacers in 1976, McKee worked in public accounting for George S. Olive and Company four years, and in industrial accounting two years. He is a graduate of Ball State University ('70), with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting.

McKee, a Certified Public Accountant, enjoys skiing and spending time at the lake. Doug, his wife Kathy and son Justin (9), reside in Carmel, Indiana.

PAUL WHITE
Public Relations Director

Paul White is beginning his second full season as Public Relations Director for the Indiana Pacers and third year overall with the club. In addition to his responsibilities in public relations, Paul coordinates many special projects with local media, community leaders and civic groups. He also serves as the link for the Pacers' in-house promotions and broadcasting divisions.

White joined the Pacers in 1983 after several years in the public relations field. A former sportscaster and talk show host in Indianapolis, White handled some broadcasting duties for the club and assisted in print and ticket sales prior to his current assignment.

A native of New York City, White is a graduate of Indiana State University (B.S., Broadcasting, 1971; M.S., Communications, 1973). Paul enjoys music, tennis, films, good conversation and good food.

DAVID PAITSON
Media & Community Relations Coordinator

Beginning his fourth season with the Indiana Pacers is David Paitson. As Media and Community Relations Coordinator, Paitson works with local, state and national media and puts together the club's community projects.

Prior to joining the Pacers, Paitson worked as Assistant to the General Manager for the El Paso Diablos, an AA Texas League baseball club. David also worked as a Sports Information Assistant at the University of Tulsa.

David is a 1982 graduate of Biscayne College (Miami, FLA) with a B.A. degree in Sports Administration. Paitson, 25, is single and enjoys music and writing.

CINDY RUSS
Director of Promotions

In her second season as Director of Promotions, Russ assembles and directs all entertainment at Pacer games. She is responsible for the Pacemate/Pride - Professional Cheerleading and Dance Team. As Director of Promotions, her department is also involved in many community promotions.

The 1980 Indiana University graduate most recently worked as a Promotions and Merchandising Assistant for Melvin Simon and Associates. Russ also worked as Advertising and Publicity Assistant for Melvin Simon Productions, Beverly Hills, California.

Cindy and her husband Ron enjoy music, movies and sports. They reside in Carmel, Indiana.

KATHY JORDAN
Assistant Director of Promotions

Indianapolis native Kathy Jordan returns for her third season as the Indiana Pacers' Assistant Director of Promotions. Jordan is invloved in creating the Pacers' game entertainment packages and assists in Pacer community promotions.

Jordan had worked as Office Manager for Indiana Black Expo and as a teacher in the Indianapolis Public Schools prior to joining the Pacers.

A graduate of Indianapolis North Central High School (1974) and Purdue University (1978), Kathy has a Masters in Education from Indiana University.

MARK ANDREW
Director of Ticket Sales

Mark Andrew Zwartynski returns for his third season as Director of Ticket Sales for the Indiana Pacers. Mark directs the Pacers' eight person sales force in all ticket sales, including season tickets, mini-season and groups.

A 1974 graduate of St. Josephs College (IN), Zwartynski has extensive marketing experience in the entertainment field. A musician himself, Mark wrote, produced and directed a rock opera "Midnight Ride to Resurrection," which toured the college circuit in 1973-74. Originally from Perth Amboy, New Jersey, Mark is a big fan of that region's favorite son, performer, Bruce Springsteen.

Mark and his wife, the former Maritta Wagner, reside in Zionsville, Indiana.

SHERRY COMPTON
Director of Broadcast Sales

Sherry Koerner-Compton, recently promoted to Director of Broadcast Sales, begins her fourth season with the Indiana Pacers.

Compton graduated with honors from Butler University ('82) receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications. She also studied at the University de la Sorbonne in Paris, France and speaks fluent French.

Prior to accepting her position with the Pacers, Compton worked with Gardner & White in the marketing department of an employee benefit plans firm.

Sherry was married to Pacers Vice President of Operations, Ray Compton this past summer. The Comptons reside in Indianapolis.

RICK FUSON
Vice President/General Manager of Arena Management, Inc.

W.F. Fuson is the Vice President/General Manager of Arena Management, Inc., the operator of Market Square Arena.

Except for a brief period in California, Fuson is a life long resident of Indianapolis. Employed by the Pacer/Arena group in June of 1984, Fuson coordinated the facilities of Market Square and the Hoosier Dome as well as the All-Star Sports, Health and Fitness Show during last winters NBA All-Star Game.

Fuson was assigned to Market Square on a full-time basis in June of 1985. A graduate of Indiana University where he played football and was a member of the I.U. Foundation, Fuson came to Market Square Arena after spending nine years as Sales Manager at MacAllister Machinery Company.

His wife, Diane is a teacher at Lawrence Central High School. The Fusons have two children, four year old Amy and two year old Emily.

RADIO & TELEVISION

GREG PAPA
Radio Play-By-Play

The youthful Greg Papa begins his first season as the voice of the Indiana Pacers.

Papa, 23, has received the nod as the Pacers lead play-by-play announcer on all radio broadcast, thus making him the youngest play-by-play announcer in professional sports. Greg will team with Ken Double and John Minko on the broadcasts.

Papa is a graduate of the Syracuse University School of Broadcasting, which has turned out a number of outstanding broadcasters including such national talents as Marv Albert, Bob Costas, Dick Stockton, Len Berman, Marty Glickman, Ted Koppel and Fred Silverman. During his senior year at Syracuse, Papa was featured in a story in Sports Illustrated.

Papa joined the Pacer broadcast team in 1984-85. He served as a play-by-play announcer/analyst on 20 Pacer radio broadcasts, hosted the George Irvine television show and handled sports director's duties for Network Indiana, a 55 station radio network.

A native of Buffalo, New York, Greg is single.

EDDIE DOUCETTE
Television Play-By-Play

Broadcasting veteran Eddie Doucette begins his first season as the Pacers lead play-by-play announcer on WTTV-TV television broadcasts.

Doucette, who has 24 years of broadcasting experience, will team with Dick Vitale and Bob Leonard on Pacer telecasts.

Doucette was most recently the voice of the NBA's Los Angeles Clippers and baseball's Los Angeles Dodgers (ON-TV). The voice of the Milwaukee Bucks for 16 years, it was Doucette who labeled Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's hook shot as the "sky hook".

He also has 13 years of major league baseball announcing experience, doing television work for the Dodgers, Cleveland Indians and Houston Astros and radio with the Milwaukee Brewers and San Diego Padres.

Doucette has spent the last seven years with the USA television network. He handled the announcing duties for the NBA game-of-the-week and for Major League Baseball and College Football broadcasts.

KEN DOUBLE
Radio Analyst

With a year under his belt as the Pacers radio analyst, Ken Double will assume the role of host for the Pacer telecast in addition to his radio duties.

Double joined the Pacers broadcast team for the 1984-85 season after four years at WRTV-TV, Channel 6, Indianapolis. Ken has a number of years of experience as a sports anchor and reporter/producer, including a four year stint at WLFI-TV in Lafayette, Indiana.

Double will be the sports anchor/host on the Pacer telecast. As host he will preview and close each game and handle halftime features. When the Pacers games are not being broadcasted on WTTV-TV, he will serve as the radio analyst along side of Greg Papa.

A native of Chicago, Ken is an accomplished organist. He is single and resides in Indianapolis.

DICK VITALE
Television Analyst

Back for his second season as a part-time member of the Pacer television broadcast crew is Dick Vitale.

For the past several seasons Vitale has provided color commentary on ESPN college and professional basketball broadcasts. He is also a columnist for Basketball Times and assistant publisher of "Dick Vitale's Basketball," a preseason annual.

Vitale was head coach at the University of Detroit and in four seasons compiled a winning percentage of .722. In 1977, he was named Athletic Director. In 1978 Vitale became head coach of the Detroit Pistons of the NBA.

He and his wife Lorraine have two daughters, and reside in West Bloomfield, Michigan.

BOB LEONARD
Television Analyst

While searching for a television analyst for the 1985-86 season, the Pacer front office was looking for someone who knows basketball and is familiar with the franchise. They couldn't have made a better choice than Bobby "Slick" Leonard who served as the Pacers head coach from 1969-80.

Leonard, head coach at Indiana for 12 seasons, guided the Pacers to three American Basketball Association Championships while posting a 529-456 record. His playoff record is an even more impressive 69-47 for a .595 percentage. In the ABA, the Leonard-led Pacers made it to the league championship series five times in eight years and were the only team to win three championships and the only team to win back-to-back titles.

JOHN MINKO
Radio Analyst

Joining the Pacers radio broadcast team for his first season is John Minko.

The afternoon sports anchor at WIRE Radio, Minko, 32, has been with the Indianapolis station for the past six years. A graduate of the Butler University Radio and Television program, he has been the voice of WIRE's Indiana High School basketball and football broadcast.

Minko is a native of Bergenfield, New Jersey. John and his wife Darlene have a daughter, Marianne (2) and are expecting a second child. John is an avid fan of the television series "The Honeymooners."

JERRY HARKNESS
Radio & Television Features

Jerry Harkness returns in a new role for his third season as a member of the Pacers broadcast team. After spending two seasons as a television analyst, Harkness will be doing radio & television features for the Pacers broadcasts this year.

Harkness averaged 7.1 points in two seasons with the Pacers. His most memorable moment was hitting an 88-foot three pointer at the final buzzer to beat the Dallas Chaparrals, 119-118 on November 13, 1967. Harkness was a member of the 1963 NCAA Champions Loyola of Chicago which defeated the University of Cincinnati who were looking for an unprecedented third straight NCAA title.

The Director of New Horizon for the United Way, Jerry and his wife Judy have two children Gerald-16 and Julie-14.

RADIO & TELEVISION

Nineteen Indiana Pacers road contests will be telecast by WTTV-TV (Channel 4) with Eddie Doucette describing the play-by-play with Dick Vitale and Bob Leonard provid- color commentary.

MARKET SQUARE ARENA

Market Square Arena, built by the city of Indianapolis and completed in 1974, is one of the premier sports and entertainment showplaces in the midwest. In addition to being the home of the Indiana Pacers, MSA will serve as the new home of the Indianapolis Checkers Hockey Club.

The building was designed by Kennedy, Brown and Associates and constructed by Huber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc. Ground breaking ceremonies were held October 20, 1971, and September 15, 1974 the building was officially opened. The Pacers fell to San Antonio, 129-121, in double overtime in their first appearance in the building on October 18, 1974.

Five nights later, October 23, 1974, saw Indiana take its first victory in its "new" home as the Pacers dumped the Spirits of St. Louis, 122-107.

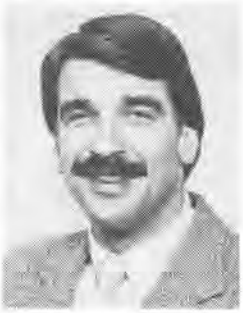
Market Square Arena highlights include the 1980 NCAA basketball semifinals and finals: the 1978 and 1979 NCAA basketball Mid-East Regionals: NBA's All-Star Saturday in 1985; the annual Indiana state high school basketball and wrestling championships and Elvis Presley's last concert on June 26, 1977.

In the summer of 1982, MSA and the city of Indianapolis hosted the National Sports Festival's basketball and hockey finals as well as speedskating and figure skating competition.

Site of countless sports and spectator events including circuses, rodeos, ice shows, major concerts, tennis and hockey. MSA has a seating capacity for concerts of 18,250: the same for boxing: 16,904 for basketball and 16,000 for hockey. All seats in the circular arena are free from posts and other obstructions of view. Prior to the 1984-85 NBA season, MSA underwent major reconstruction to include the most modern in handicap provisions.

The finest in dining is provided at Market Square Gardens restaurant, located on the seventh level of the west side of the building. Numerous concession stands also are available.

THE BASKETBALL STAFF



GEORGE IRVINE
Head Coach

George Irvine begins his sixth season with the Indiana Pacers organization and his second year as the Pacers head coach.

Irvine, who succeeded Jack McKinney following the 1983-84 season, has been instrumental in the building of the current roster. With the philosophy of building the team into a championship contender through the draft and trades, the Pacers have landed Herb Williams (1981), Clark Kellogg (1982), Steve Stipanovich (1983), Vern Fleming (1984) and Wayman Tisdale (1985) in the last five drafts.

A student of the passing game, Irvine joined the Pacer organization prior to the 1980-81 season and spent three seasons as chief aide to McKinney. As assistant coach he was in charge of pro and college scouting, coaching the squad in games and practices, and providing major input on the college draft.

Following staff cut backs prior to the 1982-83 season, he became solely responsible for coordinating the Pacer draft efforts and put in countless hours on the road looking at top college talent. It was Irvine's input that led to the selection of Stipanovich and Jim Thomas in the 1983 NBA college draft.

When the Simon brothers purchased the franchise following the 1983-84 season, the Pacers invoked a new philosophy to build the team through the draft. Management felt the need to have someone coordinate all basketball operations, including player acquisitions and scouting, so Irvine was promoted to Vice President/Director of Basketball Operations.

He immediately implemented a plan of action by assembling a five-man scouting staff to seek out college talent and by acquiring New York's 1984 first round draft choice (used to select Vern Fleming).

Originally a native of Seattle, Washington, Irvine is a 1970 graduate of the University of Washington. He completed his collegiate career as the Huskies fifth all-time scorer and career field goal percentage leader (.558).

A third round draft pick of the Virginia Squires in 1970, Irvine played five seasons as a guard/forward for the American Basketball Association club. He averaged 9.6 points in his 325 game pro career, hitting nearly 52 percent of his field goal attempts and 83 percent of his free throw shots.

Nicknamed "Hawkeye" because of his deadly outside shooting touch, Irvine never shot below 50 percent in five ABA seasons. In the 1972 playoffs, he set an ABA record by connecting on 56 of 85 field goals for the best shooting percentage (.659) in playoff history.

Following the 1974-75 season, Irvine was acquired by the Denver Nuggets along with the rights to David Thompson from Virginia for Mack Calvin, Mike Green and Jan van Breda Kolff. He played only three games for Denver due to a knee injury which cut short his pro career: He spent part of the 1975-76 season teaming with Al Albert as an analyst on Nuggets radio broadcasts.

Irvine began the 1976-77 season as a part-time assistant coach under Larry Brown at Denver. In mid season he was promoted to a full time assistant coaching position. He spent the next three seasons (1977-80) as a Nuggets assistant coach under Brown and current Pacer assistant Donnie Walsh.

In 1984, Irvine was voted the best dressed man in the city by the readers of Indianapolis Magazine. Irvine is an avid golfer.

George and his wife, the former Joan Helfant, have two sons, Toby, 9, and Jamie, 6.

DONNIE WALSH
Assistant Coach

Donnie Walsh begins his second season as assistant coach of the Indiana Pacers. In addition to assisting coach Irvine at games and practices, Walsh is in charge of scouting NBA teams prior to games vs. Indiana.

Walsh, who served as Denver's head coach from February, 1979 to February, 1981, compiled a 60-82 record with the Nuggets. Irvine served as Walsh's assistant during the 1978-79 and 1979-80 seasons.

A native of New York City, Walsh got into coaching following a highly successful college basketball career (1958-62) at the University of North Carolina. He played his first three years under Frank McGuire (who had coached the Tarheels to the 1957 NCAA title) and his senior season for then first-year head coach Dean Smith.

Upon graduation, Walsh attended the University of North Carolina Law School (1962-65), receiving his degree in 1965. He had opportunities to join then-former-Vice President Nixon's New York law firm and the U.S. Justice Department's Honors Program, but he turned them down to take a graduate assistant coaching position under Smith at North Carolina.

Walsh later joined McGuire, at South Carolina where he spent 12 seasons as an assistant coach. Responsible for recruiting, he landed such college stars as Tom Boswell, Mike Dunleavy, Alex English, Kevin Joyce, Tom Owens, John Roche and Brian Winters.

After 12 years at South Carolina, Walsh decided to enter law. He passed the Bar Exam in 1977 and was about to enter private practice when Denver Nuggets coach Larry Brown, Walsh's former teammate at North Carolina, convinced him to join the Nuggets staff. After serving as an assistant coach for a year and a half, he was suddenly thrust into the head coaching spot following Brown's resignation in February 1979. He guided the Nuggets to a 19-10 record during the final two months of the 1978-79 campaign.

In addition, Walsh helped engineer trades which brought Alex English, Kiki Vandeweghe and T.R. Dunn to Denver.

Donnie and his wife, Judy, have five children.

MEL DANIELS
Assistant Coach

Beginning his second season as a Pacer assistant coach is Mel Daniels. Daniels will assist coach Irvine in practices and games and will be involved in pro and college scouting.

A two time Most Valuable Player in the American Basketball Association, Daniels led the Pacers to three ABA Titles during his six years with Indiana. Daniels averaged 19.5 points and 15.9 rebounds in six seasons. In 1970-71 he averaged an incredible 18.0 rebounds per game.

Daniels served as an assistant coach at Indiana State University from 1978-82 and was part of ISU's 33-1 NCAA Championship runner-up team in 1978-79. Former Sycamore star Larry Bird credits Daniels with preparing him for the NBA.

Mel and his wife Cecelia reside in Indianapolis.

TOM NEWELL
Director of Player Personnel

Tom Newell begins his second season as Director of Player Personnel. He is responsible for coordinating college scouting and is involved with player acquisition and negotiating contracts. Last year's extensive scouting tour began in Anchorage, Alaska and concluded in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Newell, 38, grew up in the San Francisco Bay area and is a 1971 graduate of the University of Hawaii where he was a star basketball player. Prior to joining the Pacers, his experience includes playing and coaching in Western Europe and serving as a regional scout with the Golden State Warriors

Newell has held numerous camps with NBA players over the last six years. Prior to joining the Pacers he worked on an individual basis with present NBAers Rich Mahorn, Roy Hinson, Ralph Sampson, Marc Iavaroni and Frank Johnson.

Newell is responsible for coordinating the Pacers Walter Mitty tryout camp, a camp that has produced Tony Brown, Dwight Anderson and James Banks.

Tom and his wife Elaine have two children, Ashleigh, 6, and Christopher, 4.

DAVID CRAIG
Athletic Trainer/Team Administrator

One of the most knowledgeable trainers in professional sports, David Craig has been selected as the Eastern Conference trainer for the past two NBA All-Star games. Craig, in his 16th season as the Pacers trainer, is the senior member of the Pacer organization.

Craig is involved in many community and professional organizations. He is the President of the Indiana Athletic Trainer's Physical Therapy and Sports Medicine, Inc. and is on the Board of Directors for the NBA Trainer's Association.

When the designers began to layout the plans for Market Square Arena, it was Craig that was responsible for setting up the training facilities, considered by most observers to be among the best in the country.

A graduate of Purdue University (1970), David, his wife, Linda and children Jennifer (12) and Brian (9) reside in Acton, Indiana.

DWIGHT ANDERSON • 16

POSITION: Guard
HEIGHT: 6'4"
WEIGHT: 186
COLLEGE: USC '82
HIGH SCHOOL: Roth High School (Dayton, OH)
EXPERIENCE: One Year
BIRTHDATE: April 28, 1960
DRAFTED: Drafted in the second round (41st overall) by the Washington Bullets in the 1982 NBA college draft.
ACQUIRED: As a free agent

PRO:

Following in the foot steps of Tony Brown, Anderson comes to the Pacers through a tryout in the Walter Mitty camp . . . the former University of Kentucky and USC star, was drafted in the second round of the 1982 NBA draft by Washington . . . his only tour of NBA duty came after signing a 10 day contract with the Denver Nuggets . . . played just five games with Denver averaging 4.2 points per game . . . spent three seasons in the Continental Basketball Association . . . spent the 1982-83 season with the Ohio Mixers where, coincidentally, Tony Brown was his teammate . . . played the next two seasons with the Albuquerque Silvers . . . led the CBA in scoring last season (27.0 ppg) . . . Irvine thinks the 6'4" speedster can help shore up the Pacer backcourt. "He can flat out play," said Irvine. "His athletic ability is very impressive and he has some pretty impressive basketball skills. Dwight has a lot of smarts and experience and the fact he's matured so much since his college days certainly helps. We were the youngest team in the league last year. We're hoping to add more experience this season. So it stands to reason we want to take a long look at someone who has as much experience as Dwight."

COLLEGE:

Considered by many to be the finest high school guard in the country in 1977-78, Anderson was a unanimous first-team All-American high school selection after averaging 38.1 points, 14 rebounds and 11 assists for Roth H.S. in Dayton, Ohio . . . recruited by Kentucky, he had a standout season as a freshman for the Wildcats finishing second on the team in both scoring (13.3 ppg) and assists (behind Kyle Macy in both categories) . . . left Kentucky in the middle of the 1979-80 season, transferring to the University of Southern California . . . after becoming eligible in the second semester of the 1980-81 season, Anderson led the Trojans in scoring in eight of the 12 games he played and was the leading rebounder in four games . . . his 19.3 scoring average topped USC . . . named to Pacific 10 All-Conference team in 1981-82, he was second in the league in scoring that year (20.3 ppg) . . . led USC in nearly every offensive category.

PERSONAL:

Dwight was a Physical Education major at USC . . . his hobbies include playing video games.

TONY BROWN • 8

POSITION: Guard/Forward
HEIGHT: 6' 6"
WEIGHT: 208
COLLEGE: Arkansas '82
HIGH SCHOOL: Farragut High (Chicago, IL)
EXPERIENCE: One Year
BIRTHDATE: July 29, 1960
DRAFTED: Fourth round by New Jersey (82nd overall) in 1982
ACQUIRED: Signed as a free agent

1984-85:

One of the biggest success stories of the 1984-85 NBA season . . . drafted in the fourth round of the 1982 NBA draft by New Jersey, Brown was cut from the Nets just prior to the season and spent the year with the Ohio Mixers of the CBA . . . he sat out the entire 1983-84 season while he worked on completing his degree at the University of Arkansas . . . just about ready to give up on his career, Brown was one of 30 players invited to the Pacers first ever "Walter Mitty" tryout camp . . . he impressed the coaches enough to get an invitation to veterans camp and not only ended up making the team, but the 6-6 Chicago native started on opening night and in the Pacers first 15 games . . . earned a reputation as a strong defensive player, but established himself as an offensive threat early by scoring 20 or more points three times in the first six outings . . . had his season high 25 points in an early season loss at Philadelphia 11/7 . . . he and Steve Stipanovich were the only players to appear in all 82 games . . . scored in double figures 21 times with four games of 20 or more points and two double-doubles . . . was the Pacers leading scorer in three games, tying for top honors once and led the team in rebounding on one occassion . . . fourth on the team in offensive boards behind Kellogg, Williams and Fleming . . . averaged 6.6 points and 3.5 rebounds per game.

COLLEGE:

The versatile performer from the University of Arkansas played both forward and guard for the Razorbacks . . . in fact he even handled the point guard position for half a season . . . was the third leading scorer (10.0 ppg) as a senior behind present NBAers Scott Hastings and Darrell Walker . . . his high game during his senior year was a 24 point effort vs. arch rival Texas . . . is an excellent leaper, with an outstanding reach and is a superb defender . . . shot 57.1 percent from the field during his four years at Arkansas and never shot below 54 percent . . . had an outstanding high school career at Farragut High in Chicago.

PERSONAL:

A native of Chicago, Tony is the son of Mrs. Minnie Brown . . . majored in business at Arkansas, he still needs one more semester to graduate . . . spent this past summer touring the state of Indiana with the Pacer Youth Clinic basketball program for youngsters . . . Tony is single.

COLLEGE: Georgetown '85
HIGH SCHOOL: McKinley High (Washington, D.C.)
EXPERIENCE: Rookie
BIRTHDATE: August 16, 1962
DRAFTED: Second jound (26th overall) by Indiana in the 1985 college draft.
ACQUIRED: As a second round draft selection in the 1985 college draft.

PRO:

The first of two second round selections by the Pacers in the NBA College Draft last June, Martin was selected 26th overall . . . Mainly used at small forward at Georgetown, Irvine believes that Martin may be able to play both forward and guard in the NBA . . . "Bill Martin is the type of guy that Georgetown went to for big shots," said Irvine. "We think he is a very good small forward who didn't have a chance to display his skills. He plays hard, has a lot of character and is a good shooter from outside. We think he has capabilities of playing guard."

COLLEGE:

His true abilities may have been overshadowed YSALL THE TALENT AND TEAM CONCEPT AT Georgetown . . . demonstrated during post season all-star games that he could run the court well and rebound strongly for his size . . . finished his career as Georgetown's fourth all-time leading rebounder and the sixth all-time leading scorer . . . he started all 37 games as a senior and was the team's second leading rebounder behind Patrick Ewing . . . scored in double figures 27 times with a season high 22 points (10-12 FGS) against Morgan State . . . had a season high of 14 rebounds vs. Seton Hall . . . played impressively in the Big East tournament scoring 20 points in the opening game vs. Connecticut and followed with a 18 point, six rebound performance vs. St. John's in the title game . . . also played well in the finals of the NCAA tournament . . . had 12 points and seven rebounds against St. John's in the national semifinal game . . . a high school All-American at McKinley H.S. in Washington, D.C.. Martin played in the McDonald's All-Star Game . . . recruited by Georgetown, he scored 4.9 points and grabbed 2.4 rebounds as a freshman . . . started during the 1982-83 season and averaged 10.6 points and 6.3 rebounds . . . scored a career high 30 points vs. Alabama State that year . . . became Georgetown's sixth man for 31 of 37 games as a junior averaging 8.9 points and 5.9 rebounds . . . a good defensive player he held NCAA scoring leader (and former Pacer) Devin Durrant to a career low 13 points.

PERSONAL:

The youngest of seven children, Martin was raised by his mother, Alberta Shields, who is a nurse . . . a double major at Georgetown, he graduated on time with Bachelor of Science degrees in Sociology and Philosophy . . . went to summer school each of his three years to graduate on time . . . also worked during summers . . . in 1982, Martin worked with the MCI Corporation in security . . . the following summer he served an internship with the law firm of Verner, Lipfert, Bernhard and McPherson . . . at the time Bernhard was the major stockholder of the Washington Federals of the United States Football League . . . in the summer of '84, Martin worked on Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C. for Harold Ford, the 9th district congressman from Tennessee . . . despite his busy schedule Martin didn't give up basketball during the summers . . . in fact, he captured the scoring championship for three straight years in a Georgetown summer basketball league . . . Bill is single.

WEIGHT: 250
COLLEGE: Oklahoma '86
HIGH SCHOOL: Washington High (Tulsa, OK)
EXPERIENCE: Rookie
BIRTHDATE: June 9, 1964
DRAFTED: First round (second overall) by Indiana in the 1985 college draft.
ACQUIRED: As a first round selection in the 1985 college draft.

PRO:

The second player selected in the 1985 college draft, Tisdale should provide immediate strength to an already strong front line. "I think Wayman Tisdale could end up being a really great player in this league," said Pacer Head Coach George Irvine. "We think he has great character and he has the leadership qualities that will help other players. Wayman can run, rebound and score. He'll help us both inside and outside. He's a hard worker who'll blend in well up front with Herb Williams, Steve Stipanovich and Clark Kellogg." . . . Tisdale opted for the 1985 NBA draft following his junior season at Oklahoma University.

COLLEGE:

Became the first player in college basketball history to be named First Team All-American in his first three seasons . . . despite playing just three seasons at Oklahoma, he is the Big Eight's all-time leading scorer (2,661) and third all-time leading rebounder (1,048) . . . a high school All-American at Tulsa's Washington High, Tisdale was named Converse High School Player-of-the-Year in 1982 . . . was named Big 8 Player-of-the-Year as a freshman after averaging 24.5 points and 10.3 rebounds . . . his 810 points set a Big 8 single season record, a mark he broke in each of the next two seasons . . . led team to a 24-9 record and an NCAA berth . . . spent the following summer with the United States' Pan American Games team and was the second leading scorer behind Michael Jordan . . . as a sophomore, he set a conference single game record by scoring 61 points vs. The University of Texas-San Antonio . . . was the NCAA's fifth leading scorer with a 27.0 ppg average . . . also averaged 9.7 rebounds . . . in Oklahoma's first round loss to Dayton in the NCAAs, he had 36 points and 11 rebounds despite missing nearly eight minutes with an injury . . . along with Pacer teammate Vern Fleming led the United States Olympic basketball team to the gold medal . . . was the leading rebounder (6.8 rpg) for the Olympians . . . Olympic coach Bob Knight said of Tisdale, "One of the things I enjoyed most is working with Wayman Tisdale. POSITION: Forward/Center
HEIGHT: 6'11"
WEIGHT: 240
COLLEGE: Ohio State '81
HIGH SCHOOL: Marion Franklin H.S. (Columbus, OH)
EXPERIENCE: Four years
BIRTHDATE: February 16, 1959
DRAFTED: First round by Indiana (14th overall) in 1981
ACQUIRED: As a first round selection in the 1981 college draft.

1984-85:

Blossomed into the quality type NBA player that most people expected that he could become, during the 1984-85 season . . . finished second on the team in both scoring (18.3 ppg) and rebounding (8.5 rpg), both were the highest averages of his four year career . . . led the team in blocked shots (134) now ranks second on the all-time Pacer shot block list and should pass Darnell Hillman this year to capture the all-time lead . . . also ranks in Pacers all-time top 10 list in two point field goals (ninth) and rebounds (eighth) . . . scored in double figures in 68 of 75 games with 29 games of 20 or more points and six games of 30 or more . . . led the team in scoring 23 times and in rebounding 19½ times . . . had a season high of 33 points (twice) and a career high of 17 rebounds (twice) . . . also tied career marks for most field goals (15) and assists (8, three times) in a game . . . was second on the team in assists (252) . . . the Pacer co-captain had Pacer single game highs in free throws (17 vs. Detroit 12/1) and blocked shots (6, three times) . . . had five of the top 13 scoring games and three of the top eight rebounding games by a Pacer.

PRO:

The Pacers first round selection in 1981, Williams had an excellent rookie campaign averaging 11.5 points and a team high 7.4 rebounds while equalling a season high by rejecting 178 shots . . . twice rejected nine shots in a single game, most by a Pacer in an NBA game . . . finished third on the team in scoring (16.9 ppg), second in rebounding (7.5 rpg) and assists (262) while leading the club in blocked shots during his second NBA season . . . spent most of his time at center that season, but was shifted back to power forward for his third season . . . started the 1983-84 season in All-Star fashion, but a severe ankle injury in mid-February caused his numbers to suffer considerably and his scoring average dropped to 14.9 points per game.

COLLEGE:

A three time honorable mention All-American selection, Williams became the 35th player in NCAA Division I history to finish his college career with over 2000 points and over 1000 rebounds . . . finished his career as Ohio State's all-time leading scorer (2011) . . . received All-Big Ten honors each of his four seasons and was a first team pick as a junior . . . led Ohio State in blocked shots all four seasons . . . also led the Buckeyes in rebounding three times, finishing second as a senior . . . a two time high school All-American, Williams averaged 25 points and 15 rebounds a game as a senior and was named Ohio's Class AAA Player-of-the-Year.

PERSONAL:

A recreation major at Ohio State, Herb enjoys working with children . . . holds a basketball camp each summer in his hometown of Columbus, Ohio . . . son of John and Willie Shepherd . . . a bachelor. Herb's date of birth is February 16, 1959.

NBA DATES OF INTEREST

October 26, 1984 — A federal court rules that the NBA's salary cap and college draft are exempt from anti-trust because they were the result of good faith bargaining between the NBA and the National Basketball Players Association.

October 27, 1984 — Houston's Akeem Olajuwon and Chicago's Michael Jordan head the list of 53 rookies that have earned an NBA roster spot on Opening Night. There were also 11 Johnson's on opening night rosters.

October 29, 1984 — Attendance at opening weekend games is up 13.3 percent over 1983-84 and was highlighted by a Silverdome crowd of 27,563 for the Celtics-Pistons game.

October 31, 1984 — Former NBA greats Oscar Robertson and Jerry West are named honorary captains for the 35th annual NBA All-Star game to be played in Indianapolis.

November 2, 1984 — Philadelphia defeats Dallas 107-103 to give Billy Cunningham his 400th career coaching victory. In raising his career mark to 400-172, a remarkable winning percentage of .699, Cunningham hit the 400-mark 58 games faster than Tommy Heinsohn, the previous fastest.

November 9, 1984 — A fight between two of the games greatest stars, Boston's Larry Bird and Philadelphia's Julius Erving, erupts into a bench clearing brawl that results in record fines. Boston prevails 130-119.

November 14, 1984 — The Indiana Pacers, led by rookie Terence Stansbury's 25 points, hands the Houston Rockets and twin towers, Ralph Sampson and Akeem Olajuwon, a 125-117 loss. It was the Rockets first loss after an 8-0 start.

November 17, 1984 — Purvis Short of Golden State pours in 59 points in the Warriors' 131-114 loss to New Jersey, the highest scoring total by an NBA player in seven seasons.

December 6, 1984 — The Milwaukee Bucks retire Bob Lanier's number 16.

December 10, 1984 — Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, the all-time leading scorer in NBA history, announces that he will return for another season with the Los Angeles Lakers.

December 17, 1984 — Gus Williams of Washington breaks Randy Smith's all-time career steals record.

December 18, 1984 — Washington coach Gene Shue becomes the third coach in NBA history to reach the 700-win plateau when the Bullets defeat New Jersey 104-95.

December 25, 1984 — Bernard King's 60-point performance against New Jersey on Christmas night sets a New York record and is the highest scoring output since April 9, 1978 when David Thompson of Denver scored 73 points and George Gervin of San Antonio poured in 63 points in separate games.

January 13, 1985 — The Dallas Mavericks and Portland Trail Blazers combine to sink 11 of 24 three-point field goal attempts in Dallas' 124-101 victory, breaking the previous two-team records for both categories.

January 12, 1985 — Trent Tucker of New York hits his ninth consecutive three point attempt at Indiana to tie an NBA record held by Dale Ellis.

January 24, 1985 — Alex English of the Denver Nuggets leads a campaign by the NBA All-Stars to raise funds for Ethiopia. Each of the All-Star players donates their prize money which is matched by the NBA bringing the donation to $100,000.

February 9, 1985 — Jerry Reinsdorf, one of the owners of baseball's Chicago White Sox, purchases majority interest in the Chicago Bulls.

February 9, 1985 — Dominique Wilkins of the Atlanta Hawks captures the second annual Gatorade Slam-Dunk Championship, while Indiana's Terence Stansbury steals the spotlight with a marvelous performance in front of the hometown fans. Meanwhile, Earl "The Pearl" Monroe scores 14 points to lead the East to a 63-53 victory over the West in the second annual Shick Legends Classic.

February 14, 1985 — CBS announces that the All-Star game held in Indianapolis draws a 10.9 rating and is viewed by more people than any other All-Star game in NBA history.

February 16, 1985 — The all-time NBA single game attendance record, set just six days earlier at the All-Star Game in Indianapolis, is broken when the Pistons draw 43,816 fans to a game vs. the Philadelphia 76ers.

February 26, 1985 — Julius Erving of Philadelphia passes Elvin Hayes to move into third place on the all-time scoring list.

March 3, 1985 — Kevin McHale scores 56 points against the Detroit Pistons to set a new Celtic single game record.

March 10, 1985 — Dallas defeats New Jersey 126-113 to give Dick Motta his 700th victory as an NBA coach.

March 12, 1985 — Larry Bird breaks Kevin McHale's single game Celtic scoring record, set just nine days earlier, by pouring in 60 points in a 126-115 victory over Atlanta.

March 17, 1935 — Dan Issel, playing in his final NBA season with the Denver Nuggets, moves past Elvin Hayes into fourth position on the all-time scoring list.

April 3, 1985 — The NBA Board of Governors approves the Kings move from Kansas City to Sacramento.

April 4, 1985 — Utah Jazz guard Darrell Griffith breaks his own single-season NBA 3-point field goal record when he connects on his 92nd shot in a 119-118 loss to Seattle.

April 15, 1985 — The NBA draws 10,506,355 fans for the 1984-85 season, to set a new single season attendance record.

May 4, 1985 — Wayman Tisdale of Oklahoma University and Benoit Benjamin of Creighton are among thirteen undergraduates that declare for eligibility in the NBA draft.

May 9, 1985 — The NBA Board of Governors approves the sale of 50 percent of the Utah Jazz to Salt Lake City businessman Larry Miller.

June 3, 1985 — Larry Bird of Boston is named the NBA's Most Valuable Player for the second straight year.

June 9, 1985 — The Los Angeles Lakers defeat the Boston Celtics 111-100 to capture the NBA World Championship Series four games to two. Kareem Abdul-Jabbar is named MVP of the series.

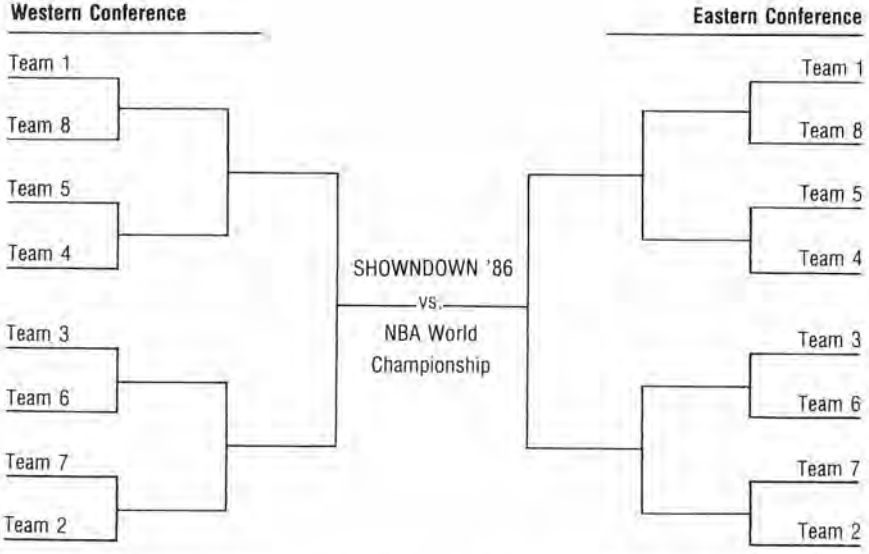
NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE

The following is the NBA playoff format and tie-breaking procedure for the 1985-86 NBA season:

1. Sixteen teams shall qualify for the playoffs. There shall be eight teams from each conference, consisting of the two division champions and the six other teams in each conference with the best winning percentage during the regular season.

2. The first round of the playoffs shall be a best-of-five series with all succeeding rounds, including the NBA World Championship Series, being best-of-seven. All teams will participate in the first round; byes that formerly went to division winners have been eliminated.

Following are the playoff pairings:



Note: Team 1 in each conference is the division winner with the better record, Team 2 is the other division winner and Teams 3-8 are ranked according to their regular-season winning percentage.

PLAYOFF TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURE

In order to break a two-team tie for playoff positions, the following criteria will be used:

a) Results of games against each other
b) Better winning percentage within own conference
c) Better winning percentage within own division (only if tied teams are in same division)
d) Better winning percentage against playoff opponents in own conference
e) Point differential in games against each other
f) Better point differential between offense and defense

A multiple-team tie will be broken in the following manner:

a) Best cumulative winning percentage in total games involving all teams tied
b) Best winning percentage within own conference
c) Best winning percentage within own division (only if tied teams are in same division)
d) Best winning percentage against playoff opponents in own conference
e) Best point differential between offense and defense

If a multiple-team tie is reduced to a two-team tie at any point using the above criteria, the two-team tie will be resolved in accordance with the existing two-team tie-breaking procedure.

1984-85 IN REVIEW

DATES OF INTEREST

October 22, 1984 — Indiana acquires rookie guard Terence Stansbury and veteran forward Bill Garnett from the Dallas Mavericks for a 1990 first round draft pick.

October 26, 1984 — Six rookies survive the Pacers final cut, giving the Pacers the youngest and least experienced team entering the 1984-85 season. Walter Mitty product Tony Brown is given the nod to start in place of the injured Clark Kellogg on Opening Night.

October 27, 1984 — Gus Williams hits a shot at the buzzer to lift the Washington Bullets past the Pacers 104-102 before 16,083 fans on opening night.

November 10, 1984 — Clark Kellogg, who had sat out since October 2nd with a knee injury, returns to the Pacers lineup and scores 31 points, but the Pacers fall to the Bulls 118-116. Following the game Pacer legends including Mel Daniels and Roger Brown return for an Old Timers Game that draws over 16,000 fans.

November 14, 1984 — Terence Stansbury pours in a season high 25 points to lead the Pacers to a 125-117 victory over Houston and their twin towers, Ralph Sampson and Akeem Olajuwon, to hand the previously undefeated Rockets their first loss of the season.

November 26, 1984 — Indiana waives their first right of refusal in signing George Johnson, thus permitting Johnson to sign a contract with the Philadelphia 76ers. As compensation the Pacers receive two future second round draft picks.

November 27, 1984 — Clark Kellogg pulls down a season high 21 rebounds and Herb Williams adds 32 points as Indiana blows out Milwaukee 126-105 in the Pacers most one sided victory of the year.

January 3, 1985 — Clark Kellogg sets a team record (in NBA games) for field goal accuracy by connecting on 15 of 16 shots (.938) as the Pacers defeat Golden State in Oakland 112-96. It was the Pacers third straight road victory matching the Pacers longest road winning streak in three years.

January 21, 1985 — Indiana defeats Golden State 129-127 in two overtimes for a third straight victory.

February 7, 1985 — Clark Kellogg is named to the Indiana Special Olympics Honorary Board of Directors.

February 9, 1985 — Terence Stansbury stuns the basketball world with an outstanding performance in the Gatorade Slam Dunk contest at All-Star Saturday held at Market Square Arena.

February 10, 1985 — A record crowd of 43,143 fans attend the 35th annual NBA All-Star Game at the Hoosier Dome. The Pacers are represented on the Eastern Squad by trainer David Craig.

February 22, 1985 — Herb Williams scores 31 points as the Pacers defeat the eventual NBA Champions, the Los Angeles Lakers 122-113 before 16,511 at Market Square Arena.

March 26, 1985 — Greg Kelser is signed to a 10 day contract.

March 27, 1985 — Surgery is performed on Bill Garnett's right little finger and he is sidelined for the remainder of the season.

April 2, 1985 — Wayne Embry is named Vice President and Consultant.

April 8, 1985 — Clark Kellogg's 35 point, 16 rebound performance helps lead Indiana to a 121-117 victory over Philadelphia, enabling the Pacers to snap a club record tying 12 game losing streak.

May 12, 1985 — Indiana draws second in the first ever lottery for the NBA draft. The New York Knicks receive the first pick in the lottery.

June 18, 1985 — Indiana makes Wayman Tisdale of Oklahoma University its first selection, and second pick overall, in the 1985 College Draft.

August 1, 1985 — The Indiana Pacers trade reserve center Granville Waiters to the Houston Rockets for a future draft pick.

October 2, 1985 — Indiana trades Jerry Sichting to the Boston Celtics for a pair of future second round draft picks.

October 10, 1985 — Wayman Tisdale, the Pacers first pick in the 1985 NBA College draft, is signed to a multi-year contract.

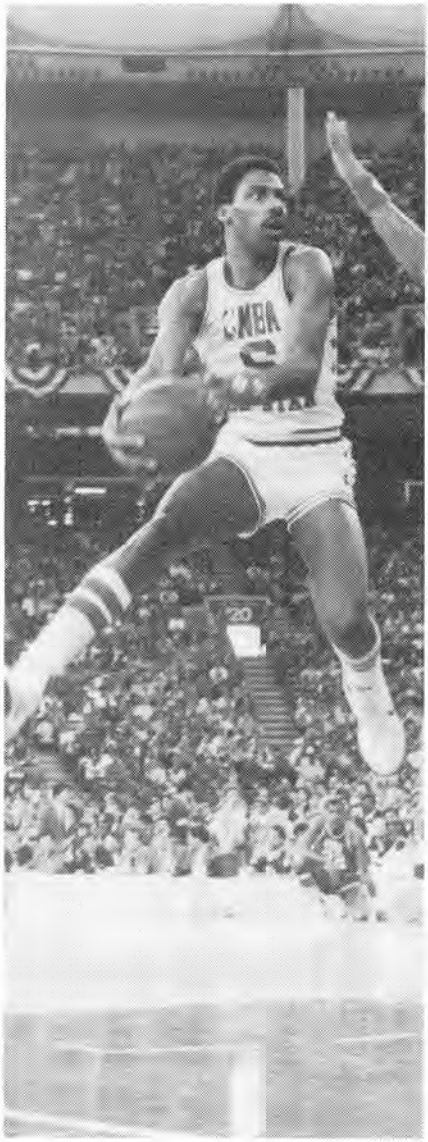
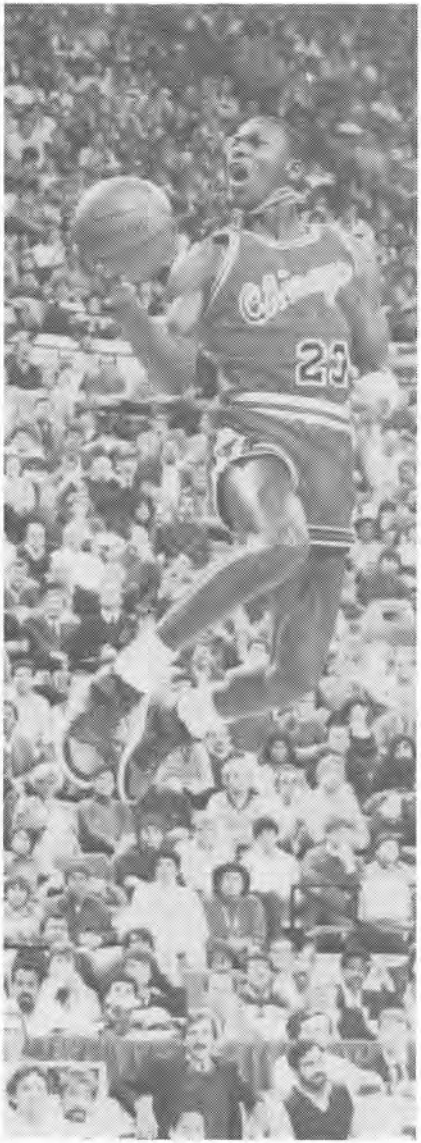
1985 NBA ALL-STAR GAME





Ralph Sampson scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in leading the West to a 140-129 victory over the East in the 35th annual NBA All-Star game in Indianapolis. Sampson was named Most Valuable Player of the game.

The game drew a NBA single game record crowd of 43,146. CBS also reported a 10.9 share of the viewing audience, making the event the most watched in NBA All-Star game history.

NBA's All-Star Saturday drew an estimated 17,000 at Market Square Arena and was highlighted by the Gatorade Slam Dunk competition and the Shick Legends Classic.

Dominique Wilkins, the human highlight film, defeated Michael Jordan in the finals of the slam dunk competition while Indiana's Terence Stansbury had an outstanding performance to finish third. Earl "the Pearl" Monroe scored 14 points to lead the East to a 63-53 victory over the West in the legends game.

LONGEST SHOT IN PRO BASKETBALL HISTORY

Jerry Harkness of the Indiana Pacers, played only 81 games in the ABA but in one of them he left a mark that has stood through the past eighteen years — the longest shot in pro basketball history.

It came during a regular season game in Dallas on November 13, 1967, the first year of the ABA.

Dallas had scored a basket with just seconds remaining to go ahead by two points when Harkness, who had entered the game for INDIANA only a few minutes earlier for injured Freddie Lewis, took an in-bounds pass with two seconds to go.

"I was near the baseline and the sideline and I just heaved the ball with all I had the length of the court," he recalls. "The buzzer went off, and then it hit the backboard and went right in the basket.

"Everyone was stunned. The fans stopped screaming and we all thought the game was going into overtime. It must have been five seconds before we realized that the basket was a three-point goal and that we had won."

The distance? 88 feet!

NOTES

NOTES

You don't have to ask some people to give more of themselves. That's just the kind of people they are. You'll find them in cities and towns just like yours, rolling up their sleeves and pitching in where help is needed most.

You'll find Hook's Pharmacists-In-Green out there, too. And whether they volunteer on the neighborhood basketball court or the nearby blood bank, their involvement brings them a little closer to you and your family.

You've always known Hook's pharmacists are an important part of your health care needs. It's good to know they're an important part of your community, too. We like to see you smile.

Some people put more heart into their work.
